Press Release

The Upstate could have the next 2010 Meals on Wheels National Volunteer

Greenville, S.C.

If you grew up in or around Greenville, or even if you are a newcomer to the area, you probably have heard of Monty DuPuy. Remember Monty's Rascals?

Meals on Wheels Greenville County has nominated Monty and his wife Miriam for the 2010 Meals on Wheels National Association American Volunteer Award.

Monty and his wife Miriam have been volunteering for Meals on Wheels of Greenville County for almost 35 years. This dedicated couple delivers an average of 19 meals each week – approximately 988 meals a year – to homebound individuals in our community. As members of Travelers Rest United Methodist Church, and volunteers for numerous organizations in our community, there are so many that have been touched by their amazing spirit and generosity.

Please visit www.mealsonwheelsgreenville.org and vote for Monty and Miriam DuPuy as the Meals on Wheels National Volunteers of the Year. Let's show America the true character of people that live in the Upstate of South Carolina. This award would be a fantastic recognition for this couple, and our community.

Please Vote – and spread the word!!

Meals on Wheels enhances the quality of life of homebound individuals by providing nutritious meals, personal contact and related services. Meals on Wheels is not a United Way funded agency, but is supported by contributions from individuals, churches, civic groups, corporations, grants and foundations.
