Meals on Wheels To Host March For Meals on March 18, 2009

Meals on Wheels announced that it will hold March For Meals Day on Wednesday, March 18th, as a part of a national campaign. Local elected officials will participate in the event to show support for the Greenville County's seniors and homebound neighbors. A brief press conference will be held on 10:00 a.m. on March 18th at Meals on Wheels' Oregon Street location, followed by the officials delivering meals with their constituents.

David Sudduth, a member of the Greenville City Council, is just one of the many officials taking a part in this special day. “Delivering a hot meal and a smile is a simple but meaningful way to make a difference in someone's life. I'm grateful for this opportunity to serve alongside the hundreds of dedicated Meals on Wheels volunteers.”

March For Meals is a national campaign initiated by Meals On Wheels Association of America (MOWAA), which seeks to raise awareness of senior hunger and to encourage action on the part of the local community.

Meals on Wheels of Greenville enhances the quality of life of homebound individuals by providing nutritious meals, personal contact and related services. Meals on Wheels is not a United Way funded agency, but is supported by contributions from individuals, churches, civic groups, corporations, grants and foundations.
